

December 13, 2006

Attention: Members of CAW Local 4001 / National Council 4000
CN Agreement 5.1 at Prince George, B.C.

Pursuant Section 01.12 of the CAW Local 4001 Bylaws, the duties and role of the Unit Local Chairperson is as follows:

- 1) The key representative and spokesperson for the Local Unit at Prince George.
- 2) Handle all matters with the members and employer pertaining to the respective collective agreements, and as set out in the provisions of such collective agreements.
- 3) Represent members on issues concerning discipline and grievances.
- 4) Responsible in distributing all correspondence to their respective Unit Executive Board that is received from the National Office, Council 4000 or Local Union. Pertinent information that is requested to be posted, or information that concerns the general membership, the Unit Local Chairperson must arrange to have such posted on all union bulletin boards forthwith, for the membership's viewing, education and guidance.

In accordance the CAW Constitution, this Call for Nominations will be posted for duration of seven (7) calendar days up to and including 23:59 hours PST December 20, 2006. Members may nominate a person, or, interested candidates may express interest by completing the nomination form below.

An election will be held between those candidates who are nominated during a special CAW Local 4001 Membership Meeting to be held on Thursday, December 28, 2007 at Prince George.

NOMINATION FORM:

[Please Print] I, _____, a CAW Local 4001 member in good standing at Prince George, hereby nominate _____ for the position of Local Chairperson at Prince George, BC. _____
Nominator's signature

I, _____, a CAW Local 4001 member in good standing, accept nomination for the position of Local Chairperson at Prince George.

Signature of Nominee _____

Please return by fax to Clyde Duncan, President of Local 4001 at: (604) 253-9275 before 23:59 PST, December 17, 2006