2006 Survey of Benefits – CN

It has come to our attention that CN, without any input from the CAW, has commenced the circulation of the above survey.

The CAW has reviewed this document and has contacted CN to notify them that we believe the survey in many areas has absolutely nothing to do with how employees access their benefits program.

The vast majority of these questions are clearly ones that are normally and historically dealt with at the bargaining table and should not be used to undermine that process.

Therefore, please be advised that the CAW does not encourage our members to participate in this survey.

For more information, we are asking our members to contact their respective representatives in their regions if they have any questions.
